BONNIE S. BRIER

Bonnie S. Brier served as the Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary of New York University from August of 2009 until her retirement in January 2015. Her duties included overseeing all of the University’s legal operations, including the Medical Center and its affiliates.

Previously, Ms. Brier was the General Counsel and Assistant Secretary to the Boards of The Children’s Hospital of Philadelphia and The Children’s Hospital Foundation from 1990 to 2009. She was their first in-house counsel. Prior to that, she was a partner at Ballard, Spahr, Andrews & Ingersoll, specializing in legal issues related to colleges and universities, hospitals, and other nonprofit organizations; she joined the firm in 1979. Ms. Brier was an Assistant U.S. Attorney in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania from 1977 to 1979. She served as law clerk to Chief Judge Joseph S. Lord, III of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania from 1976 to 1977.

Ms. Brier received her A.B. from Cornell University magna cum laude, and her J.D. from Stanford University, where she was a member of the Order of the Coif and an editor of the Law Review.

SHARON H. COTT

Sharon H. Cott is Senior Vice President, Secretary and General Counsel of The Metropolitan Museum of Art, responsible for coordinating all corporate governance issues for the Museum’s Board and its sixteen committees. As General Counsel, she oversees all legal matters concerning the Museum, supervises a staff of six in-house attorneys, as well as the various law firms that serve as the Museum’s outside counsel.

Ms. Cott joined the Museum staff in 1988 as Assistant Secretary and Associate Counsel and became Secretary and Counsel in 1992. She was named a Vice President in 1999 and a Senior Vice President in 2005. Prior to working at the Museum, Ms. Cott was an associate at Patterson, Belknap, Webb & Tyler where she worked on tax, trusts and estates and corporate issues, with an emphasis on non-profit organizations.

Ms. Cott received her B.A, magna cum laude from the University of Virginia and is a graduate of Yale Law School, where she served as an Editor of the Yale Law Journal and wrote her law journal note on the Fiduciary Duties of the Directors of Non-Profit Organizations.

ADAIR IACONO

Adair Iacono joined the Vera Institute of Justice as the 2010-2011 Rockefeller Brothers Fund Fellow in Nonprofit Law. She has remained at Vera as Assistant and Associate General Counsel, and now Corporate Counsel. Ms. Iacono graduated from Princeton University and received her J.D. from New York University School of Law, where she served as a student research fellow at the National Center on Philanthropy and the Law.
KENNETH T. MONTEIRO

Kenneth T. Monteiro is the Vice President, Secretary, and General Counsel of the Ford Foundation. Mr. Monteiro joined the foundation in 1995 as Resident Counsel and most recently held the position of Assistant Secretary and Deputy General Counsel.

Prior to joining the Ford Foundation, Mr. Monteiro was an associate at Debevoise & Plimpton. He is on the board of Philanthropy New York and serves on the Government Relations Committee of the Non-Profit Coordinating Committee. He has also served on the boards of the Bronx Academy of Arts and Dance, the New York City Gay and Lesbian Anti-Violence Project, the Innovation Center for Community and Youth Development, and the Lesbian and Gay Law Association Foundation of Greater New York.

Mr. Monteiro received his B.A. in International Relations and Political Science from Boston University, and his law degree from Boston University School of Law.

JONATHAN NG

Jonathan Ng is the Global Legal Director and first-ever in-house legal counsel for Ashoka: Innovators for the Public, an international NGO founded in 1980. Ashoka primarily oversees a global fellowship program, having elected approximately 3,000 Ashoka Fellows across more than 70 countries. These are individuals who are leading social entrepreneurs involved in civic engagement, economic development, environment, health, human rights and education. Mr. Ng oversees Ashoka’s in-house legal matters for its global headquarters located in the Washington, D.C. metro area and coordinates with Ashoka’s country offices on matters related to corporate structuring, governance and compliance. He manages Ashoka’s relationships with its external pro bono legal counsel, which includes some of the world’s largest law firms.

Prior to joining Ashoka, Mr. Ng practiced law at White & Case LLP in its New York office with the energy, infrastructure, project and asset finance practice group. Mr. Ng received a B.A. and B.S., with distinction, from the University of Kansas, and his J.D., cum laude, from the University of Notre Dame Law School.

GAIL AIDINOFF SCOVELL

Gail Aidinoff Scovell is the General Counsel of the Open Society Foundations. Previously, she served as Counsel to the President of Hunter College, City University of New York, managing all campus legal and labor relations issues.

Prior to joining Hunter College, Ms. Scovell was General Counsel at the Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum in New York where she had oversight responsibility for all legal matters affecting the museum. Prior to that, Ms. Scovell was a tax associate at Cleary, Gottlieb, Steen & Hamilton where she also served as pro bono counsel to organizations involved in education, housing, and environmental conservation.

Ms. Scovell graduated from Harvard College and received her J.D. from Harvard Law School.
Annual Nonprofit General Counsels Career Panel at NYU School of Law
April 29, 2015