

Monday, March 6, 2023, Lester Pollack Room, 245 Sullivan St., New York

Empirical Data on Annulment of International Awards: What to learn from it? ArbDossier.com and Beyond

This in-person seminar will survey recent initiatives relating to the collection of data on the annulment of international awards in different jurisdictions and examine the role this data may play in the pre-award stage.

6.30 pm – 8:15 pm NY time

MODERATOR
Franco Ferrari

BIOS

Speakers

Monique Sasson

Dr. Monique Sasson is an Independent Arbitrator at Arbitra and Of Counsel at DJR Arbitration and Litigation, a boutique arbitration and litigation law firm. She holds a Ph.D. in International Law from Cambridge.

Marco Seregni

Mr. Marco Seregni is an Italian-qualified lawyer specialized in international arbitration. Marco is currently pursuing his LLM at NYU School of Law

Bojana Bilankov

Ms. Bojana Bilankov is the Chief Editor of ArbDossier. She is also a Vanderbilt Scholar currently pursuing her LLM at NYU School of Law

Murtuza Federal

Mr. Murtuza Federal is a dual qualified (India and the US) solicitor specializing in dispute resolution in India, specifically the Bombay High Court. He is the name partner at the firm of Federal & Company, a boutique law firm in Bombay

Gautam Bhattacharrya

Mr. Gautam Bhattacharrya is a senior partner at the London office of Reed Smith (international arbitration) and the former Managing Partner of Reed Smith's Singapore office. He is also chair of Reed Smith's India Business Team

Devarsh Saraf

Devarsh Saraf is the co-founder of ArbDossier and is also presently pursuing his LL.M. degree from Columbia Law School and is expected to graduate in 2023

Please note that even though the event is free of charge, registration is required to access the event location. To register, please fill out this form.